

LOVE LANGUAGES

What makes you feel most loved by your partner?

What do you desire above all else from your partner?

How do you express love to your child?

Based on the work of Dr. Gary Chapman

Are you and your loved ones speaking the same language?

He sends you flowers...

when what you really want is a foot massage.

She tells you she loves you...

when what you really need is a home-cooked meal.

You buy a new toy for your son...

when what he really wants is some one-on-one time.

Space is limited!
